INTERCHURCH DRIVE WILL BE REVIVED

Canvass for Funds, on "Greatly Modified Scale," Is Authorized by Committee.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Inter-church World Movement, which shut down all field activities last week, began preparations for the resumption of its work "on a greatly modified scale" yesterday. After a series of committee meetings and secret discussions in the board of foreign missions a program of reorganization was outlined.

Overtures were made to the Baptists, Presbyterians and other denominations who quit the movement, to return. The way was paved for the co-operation of Protestant denominations, which never were affiliated with the world organization. Announcement was made that the long-delayed report on the steel strike situation will be made public on July 20 in its entirety.

A subcommittee of eleven, representing the general committee, conferred for several hours with the business men's committee of four, before reporting in favor of the appointment of a committee of five to name a committee of fifteen to lay out a reorganization plan. The committee of fifteen is to confer with denominational authorities and present a report to the general committee. A budget not exceeding $75,000, was authorized for reorganization. This budget will be added to the present debt of the movement.

The destiny of the movement, after the general committee acts on the report of the committee of fifteen, will be placed in charge of a board, appointed by the co-operating denominations. No expense is to be incurred by the movement except with the approval of the denominational authorities.

There was a unanimity of purpose and a harmony of procedure at the meeting in marked contrast to that of last month, when it was decided to wind up the movement's outside affairs. That there is much hard work to be done before the cause is completely re-established was conceded, for the critics within the member denominations have not been silenced.

BRYAN MAY SUPPORT COX AFTER THINKING IT OVER

Refuses to Commit Himself Until He Has Deliberated on Platform and Candidate.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 9.—William Jennings Bryan, who arrived in this city, when asked whether he would actively support the Democratic ticket, stand by during the campaign or oppose it, gave out the following statement:

"I stated at the close of the convention that the Democrats had taken more than the usual time in selecting a candidate, and that the voters would have about four months to decide between candidates. "I shall take a part of that time for deliberation before making any announcement. I wish to see the official quoted passage from Mark Anthony's speech as given by Shakespeare. The passage fits my case. 'My heart is in the grave with our cause, and I must pause until it comes back to me.'"

AUTHORS FAVORED.

American authors, under a reciprocal plan agreed to by the United States and Great Britain, are granted copyright privileges in Great Britain for works which are published not later than six months after the "actual final termination of the war," between the Central Powers and the British government, a date which must be hereafter determined, the State Department announced today. British authors will have the same privileges in the United States.

HUSBAND INSISTS UPON A 'NIGHT OFF'

Affidavits Show Prosperous Garage Owner Upheld Right To Late Hours.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Affidavits filed in the Supreme Court show that William Lee, a prosperous garage owner, whose wife, Anna P. Lee, is prosecuting her third suit for separation, made the following excuses when charged with keeping late hours and quarreling:

"Can't a fellow have a night off once in a while?"

"Just because a man is married to a woman, must he stick to her for life?"

"My wife always insisted on my bringing home a certain Socialist newspaper. I didn't like this paper nor its doctrine, and when I refused to buy it we quarreled. Sometimes I became so discouraged that I yielded to the weakness of nature by indulging in liquor."

Justice Davis ordered Lee to pay $275 monthly alimony and $200 counsel fees.

DENIES RAND SCHOOL WORK.

Mrs. Lee, her husband said, is earning $20 a week by doing clerical work at the Rand school, but she denied this. She said she is employed by the Co-operative League of America, an organization supported by Dr. and Mrs. Warbaase.

In her complaint she charged that her husband for years came home drunk at 2 and 3 o'clock in the morning, or if he came in by daylight he changed his clothes, took a bath and went out and did not return until the next day. She said in court: "It is hardly likely that he would take such good care of his personal appearance for the sole purpose of staying in the garage all night. He used to remain out all night at times before he bought the garage."

MAINTAINS RIGHT TO STUDY.

"I am not a supporter of Bolshevism. I believe in law and order and in the constitution of the United States. I do not believe there is any inconsistency between the study of a political or economic question and the maintenance of the relationship of a wife and mother."

Mrs. Lee says Lee is managing owner of the Elk Garage and has an income of $10,000 a year. When he had a garage on the Lincoln Highway at Stockton, Cal., she says, she found many cards in his pocket, bearing the names of San Francisco women whom she did not know.

She asserts that one woman, signing herself "Mabel," wrote him a "Dearest Billie" and reminded him of the many good times they had had together. The Lees have one daughter, Lydia, seven years old, who is boarding with relatives in Connecticut.

The period started at the beginning of this year, and for a time Cardinal Gibbons thought seriously of paying his respects this year.
